THE HOUSE

Halliday Homes Collection are delighted to present to the market this magnificent Victorian country house, built by the Earl of Dunmore as the vicarage for the Estate and village of Dunmore, with over 14 acres of private ground.Â

The main accommodation is reached off a large central hallway and includes on the ground floor, five well-proportioned reception rooms, drawing room, formal dining room, sitting room, informal dining room and the gallery room. The kitchen includes Neff appliances and is a spacious and sociable area with a large island. In addition, there is a laundry, two utility rooms, WC, bar, gym, two bedrooms with ensuite facilities and a further bedroom with a shower room conveniently located next door.

The upper floor offers a further eight bedrooms with six enjoying stunning ensuite bath and shower rooms and the remaining two sharing access to a shower room. Two additional rooms are accessed from a separate staircase which would make useful home office space.
