53B Murray Place

A very rare find in this stunning wonderfully large, traditional period apartment by the award-winning interior designer Antonio Grano. Fully refurbished with uncompromising attention to detail, and particular attention to the mood lighting, technology, vegan mushroom leather illuminated headboards to both double bedrooms, vegan leather paneling to all doors, in addition to the many other features in this property.

The luxurious apartment benefits from grand period high ceilings, a large well-proportioned lounge, with a stunning view towards the Wallace Monument and Ochil Hills. Leading off of the hall, there is a spacious kitchen and dining experience, two double bedrooms and a shower room. Traditional glazed sash and case windows, original deep skirting, high ceilings, architraves and decorative fire surrounds adds to the prominence of the property.

One of the wonderful features in this property is the charismatic iron log burning oven, which has been beautifully restored and illuminated to create a focal drinks area within this sumptuous kitchen and dining area. This historic custom feature is from the work of the renowned Graham and Morton (1897) that were based in King Street, Stirling as the purveyors of high class artistic bespoke goods for the discerning home.
