1 Old Schoolhouse

Welcomed to the market is this charming, beautifully presented, grade B listed ground floor apartment dating back to 1833 and tucked away in the popular town of Bannockburn. The property, which is situated within a conservation area, has tasteful modern decor throughout, a plethora of storage and is in true walk-in condition which early viewing will confirm.

The accommodation comprises: lounge, dining room, kitchen, two double bedrooms and a bathroom. Warmth is provided by gas central heating, boiler was replaced in November 2022 and a multifuel stove which was replaced in December 2022. The property has traditional sash and case windows throughout.

Externally the private, south facing, rear, walled garden has a decking area, a shed and is laid with wood bark. There is also a communal drying area to the left hand side of the property, a bin store and an external coal store. Ample off-street parking to the front.
